

This country was built on free enterprise. New technologies cause change. Leave the market place alone. FCC regulations of this sort will only stifle the market. Our country has enough problems with foreign competition, let's not let government meddling add to the problems. FCC BACK OFF!!